

Eser YEŐILDAĐ is an Assistant Profeser at Manisa Celal Bayar University, Applied Sciences Faculty, Department of Capital Markets. He graduated from the Department of Business Administration in 2005. He completed his master's degree in business administration in 2008 and his doctorate in 2013. He wrote his Master's and Doctorate theses in Finance. Between 2006 and 2010, he worked as an investment expert at Evgin Securities, Seker Investment and Anadolu Investment. He worked as a lecturer at Pamukkale University ivril Vocational School between 2010-2013. He worked as assistant profesor at the Usak University School of Applied Sciences between 2013-2020. He has been working at Manisa Celal Bayar University, Applied Sciences Faculty since 2020. He teaches courses such as Financial Mathematics, Financial Management, Derivative Markets and Investment Analysis and Portfolio Management.